NUMBER 313

THE PHILIPPINES

eral Officers Killed.

Attacked By the Natives While

Returning From Church.

Women and Priests Were Rescued

By a Steamer-Germans Desire a

Peaceful Settlement In Samoa-Protest Against Anti-German Expressions In United States-Belgians Defeated In Africa-Several

Earthquake Shocks In Greece,

Labuan, Island of Labuan, British

Borneo, Jan. 22.—The steamer Labuan, which has returned from the island of Palawan, in the southewestern portion of the Philippine archipelago, reports that the Spanish governor of the island and a number of Spanish officers were murdered by the natives while issuing from church. The natives then retired to the hills, taking the women and children and some mest as prisoners.

A Spanish gunboat and a mail boat called and left again. Captain Pfort of the steamer Labuan interviewed the natives and brought away the governor's wife, the other women and children, a priest and twelve soldiers.

EARTHQUAKES IN GREECE. Some Villages Completely Destroyed and Others Greatly Damaged. Athens, Jan. 22.—A strong seismic disturbance was feit this morning

WERE CARRIED AWAY

WOMEN AND CHILDREN

TWENTY-EIGHTE YEAR.

NO IMPERIALISM. NO ALLIANCES

New York's Protest Against McKinley's Dictatorship.

AMERICANS PLEAD FOR AMERICANISM

Ambassador Eustis Speaks of the President's Swelled Head.

New York Academy of Music Crowd-of citizens was held in the Academy and approval."

Mr. Isryan said that he was fully in sympathy with every effect put forth to save the nation from the dangers of imperialism.

Bishop Petter wrote: The purposes of the meeting have my nearty approval and I should be glid, if I had time, to say how strongly I feel that the policy of imperialism, or expansion, in any such sense as proposed at present, threatens equally the moral integrates of the policy of t hich its prosperity has hitherto

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

NO ENTANGLING ALLIANCE.

No ENTANGLING ALLIANCE.

"Fourth—That we are opposed, therefore, to the idea that peace-loving and free people of the republic, who are engaged in the grand task, as yet uncompleted, of developing their natural resources, and of establishing upon a firm basis their own theory of government by, of and for the people, should now, or under any conceivable efreumstances, enter upon any alliance with any European power, the result of which might be to embroid us in European controversies, in which our real interests are not concerned; that we place on record our high appreciation and sincere thanks for the conspicuous services rendered to the American people by Senators Hoar, Hale, Masen and Wellington in preventing the new and dangerous policy of imperialism from being forced through the senate of the United States without proper and adequate discussion; and we commend to all citizens of this republic the high sense of public duty and calightened patrioties with lave characterized the action of these senators in resisting in of purice day and congressed putrolism which have characterized the action of these senators in resisting innovations on our system of government that are pregnant with demoralization and disaster.

*Resolved, That copies of these resolved.

lutions be sent to the president of the United States, to the members of the cabinet and to both houses of con-

AMBASSADOR EUSTIS' REMARKS The first speaker was James B. Eus-

I recognize the type of true Americans, handed together to protest against ex-pansion and imperialism. What a strange sight! A meeting of intelligence atrange sight! A meeting of intelligent American citizens, on American set, protesting against imperialism and the imperialistic policy of the American government. The representative of the people of this great country are combating the idea, and I hardly feel esthough I were living in the republic of the United States; I feel as though I were living in stone continental security where imperialism is recognitive the protection.

The sentiment of the American peo- F. pie is against the rash idea of excin-sion, for to fight the Philippines would mean loss of life to the American sol-dlers in the future, in a sickly clime. is this wild theory is carried out. There | water.

are only two persons whose ideas on the question of annexing the Philippines have given me cause for serious inought. One of them thought that by annexation certain United States merchandise could be sold to the Filipiniss. The other was a preacher who chought by expansion and annexation, he could sell some Protestant Bibles to the na-

"The president of the United States." The president of the United States, continued the speaker, "will, on March 4 next, adjourn congress, which will not meet again until December, during which time he will become military dictator of more than twelve and a balf millions of people in these conquered islands. Yes, our constitutional president is going to govern them by his dent is going to govern them by his personal will, and will you tell me that the act will not afford him a swelled

Mr. Eustis referred to the late war with Spain, and contended that the signing of the peace protocol, after su-ing for peace by Spain, was in itself sufficient to decide the questions in-volved.

COMPERS SPEAKS FOR LABOR.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was the next speaker. Mr. Gompers severely criticised the inconsistency of the United With People Who Oppose the McKinley Policy of Conquest—
Bishop Potter, William J. Bryan and Grover Cleveland Sent Letters Expressing Their Sontiments—
"Policy of Infamy," Says Cochran
"Policy of Infamy," Says Cochran
New York, Jan. 22.—A mass-meeting of citizens was held in the Academy

Tour Mark Crowder Computer to free the Cubans and of denying the same measure of freedom and liberty to the Filipinas. He declared that the fing of the nation should never ue used to hide tyranny. He said that it is not at all improbable that the Filipinos will yet become nart of the standing army of the United States, and might yet be called uson to shoot down American wage-earners. He said it was impossible to subdue a people by force of arms and at the same time maintain our free institutions.

POURWE COCHEAN'S SPEECH

BOURKE COCHRAN'S SPEECH.

of clinens was held in the Academy of Music tonight, under the auspices of the Continental League, for the purpose of protesting against the policy of "Imperialism and cutangling alliances with European powers." The meeting was attended by a great crowd. Long before the doors were opened 3,552 people were clamoring for admission, and in a short while the police ordered the doors unlocked because of the crush. Ten minutes later there was not a vacant each in the house.

A list of vice presidents read include these names: Wheeler H. Peckham, Abram S. Hewitt, Henry Loomis Neissm, William H. Horubiewer, Roger A. Pryor, Francis Wayland Clenn, John C. Sheehan and Frederick R. Condert, A number of vice presidents were rannounced as representing the Central Labor shole. The American Federation of Labor. John M. Parsons, general master workman of the Knights of Labor; Jahn M. Parsons, general master workman of the Knights of Labor; John M. Parsons, general master workman of the Knights of Labor; John M. Parsons, general master workman of the Knights of Labor; Daniel Harris, president of the State Federation of Labor.

Communications were read from expressions the federation of Labor.

Communications were read from expression of fine limiting their inability to be present. Mr. Cleveland, in his letter sail.

"I am seconposed to the expansionist craze now inflicting our body politic, that any organization formed in opposition to at bass my hearty sympathy with every effort put forth to saye the nation from the dangers of an allow and have a clitzer soldier.

Mr. Isryan said that he was fully in sympathy with every effort put forth to saye the nation from the dangers of an allow and have a clitzer soldier.

No nation, particularly the American region and a mercenary army. It is against as human depravity.

No nation, particularly the American nation, can have a citizen soldiery and a mercenary army. It is against the faith of Washington and the signers of the declaration of independence. The innertalists of today would have you believe that Washington and the frameers of the constitution descended on the capital of Washington and played havor with the nation and were, of course, decidedly un-American.

With regard to the Philippines, if we

"With regard to the Philippines, if we are to become barbarous, let us excel in our barbarity, as we have excelled in our civilization, all the other nations of the world. Let us not substitute the RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Resolutions were adopted, declaring:

"First—That the full discharge of our obligations to the Inhabitants of the Philippines requires that we should, without delay, help them to secure, in their domestic affairs, first, order, and then liberty; and that we are absolutely and unqualifiedly opposed to the amexation of the Philippine islands as a permanent portion of the mational domestic.

"Second—That we are unalterably opposed to the american ideal of national growth, in favor of the European ideal of colonial conquest; we ture-gravity subsectibe to the theory that government derives all its just powers from the consent of the governed, and to the theory that there should be no taxation without representation; mad to the theory that there should be no taxation with Spain with the consent of the povernment of the people of the United States have incurred any responsibility or obligations as to the result of the late war.

"Third—That neither the jovernment of the people of the United States have incurred any responsibility or obligations as to the result of the late war.

"Third—That neither the jovernment of the people of the Poule States have incurred any responsibility or obligations as to the result of the late war.

"Third—That neither the jovernment of the people of the Poule States have incurred any responsibility or obligations as to the result of the late war.

"Third—That neither the jovernment of the people of the Cuited States have incurred any responsibility or obligations as to the result of the late war.

"Third—That neither the jovernment of the people of the Cuited States have incurred any responsibility or obligations as to the result of the late war.

"Third—That neither the jovernment of the people of the Cuited States have incurred any responsibility or obligations as to the result of the recent war with Spain which requires any departure from or abandonment of the green that the people of the couled States have incurred to the people.

No ENTANGEING ALLIANGE.

NEW RAILWAY LINE.

Will Connect the Burlington With the O. R. & N. Denver, Jan. 22-A special to the News from Wallace, Ida., says: It is announced here, on what is seemingly good authority. int there will be a line built from here o connect the Gregon Railway & Naviga, in company with the Burlington road. The latter company is to build from Billings west, while the Gregon Railway & Gwigation company builds eastward from ere. The mass over the Bluer Road meunins is directly between here and Thompson Fails. Mont. A surveying party has seen in the field for several months, runding lines, which would be of no value or a local line. The surveyors have, however, been reticent as to their designs. that there will be a line built from here

Iron Furnace Explosions.

Lebanon, Pa., Jan. 21.- Three heavy exoccurred at short intervals at Neither Party Is Yet Certain of a the Bird Coleman furnose plant at Corn, wall, five miles from here, last night. Buildings were shaken and many window, panes broken throughout the town. The twin furnaces were much damaged and the loss was heavy. Of the many hundreds of workmen, none were seriously injured, although a number suffered slight injuries. The explosions were caused by molien metal melting its way out of a stack and entering the under pit, where it came into contact with water. The furnaces are operated by the Lackman Iron & Steel company of Scranton.

Launch Run Down.

San Francisco, Jan. 22—The steam ferry bean Oakland, plylag between this city and Oakland, plylag between this city and Oakland, ran down the launch William, D today, near Goat island. The launch sank immediately, Engineer Wac, dies of the William D was drowned. F. D. Orr, a passenger, was struck by the Oakland and died of his injuries after reaching the hospital. Captain Chris. The balloting for senator begins tomorrow noon, but before that order is pussenger on the launch were ploked up by the Cakfand while struggling in the water. Buildings were shaken and many window. West Virginia legislature has a majority names broken throughout the town. The of only one on joint ballot for senator, fornia Bribery Investigation. dations Among Plantations.

COMMITTEE TODAY.

Upon the Recent Sensational Charges Against Senatorial Candidates-Bulla Has Many Secondchoice Votes-Tired of Deadlock.

Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 22.-Aside from senatorial situation is the same as it was of the governor general, and the order one week ago. There has been no break directing that hereafter the bulk of from either of the principal candidates, Grant and Burne, neither has the opposition to these candidates weakened. The money pay and for rations merely, sition to these candidates weakened. The money pay and for rations merely, its bulk of Los Angeles. He appears to be the strongest candidate in the fight or will be if the second choice votes, which it is confidently expected by the Bulla forces will eventually go to him, material-

Interesting Developments In Cali- Brigands Commit Wholesale Depre- Senator Acquitted and Vindicated By the Senator's Henchman.

CAUSE DISSATISFACTION.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH: MONDAY, JANUARY 23, 1899

at Havana Results In General Demoralization-Cubens Threaten to Take to the Mountains-Several People Murdered.

Sacramento, Cai., Jan. 22—Aside from the scandals dug up by the investigation from the United States military autre into the charges brought against Speaker Wright of the assembly and cohers prominently connected with the charge brought against thorities of the Santingo military decreting the autre prominently connected with the coherence of a United States senator, the torms receipts without the permission of the Remblican party for United States senator, the havana, Jan. II.—The special com-mission appointed last week by the mu-nicipal council to call upon the gover-nor general today with a formal pro-test against the Bank of Spain's ap-pointment as collector of taxes, post-poned the visit, on the understanding that such a protest is now unneces-sary, as General Brooke has forwarded recommendations in line with the pro-posed protest to Washington.

"IN POLITICS? ME? ABSURD!"

There is not a single case of vellow

There is not a single case of yellow ever in Major General Lee's camp, he two suspected cases in the Second exas regiment have been diagnosed

RACE TO DAWSON CITY.

Six Thousand Dollars Wagered On the Result.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 22—A race against time from Seattle to Dawson for a purse of $6,000 began at 12 o'clock tonight, when Richard Butler, a wealthy Klondiker, started for Dawson on the steamer City of Seattle. Joe Barrett, another wealthy Klondiker, bet Butler $2,000 that he could not make the trip from Seattle to Dawson in twenty-five days or less, and $1,600 more that he could not make the trip from Seattle it in less than twenty days.

Certainly follow in due time.

"WILLIAM A STONE."

QUAY IS BEATEN.

E. A. Van Valkenburg, who is managing the anti-Quay campaign, issued a statement tonight, in which he says the senatorial situation is no longer compilicated nor uncertain. Mr. Van Valkenburg, claims Senator Quay's strength was at the when he received 113 votes, which is just it short of a majority. Against him are 129 votes; S1 are Democratis and 52 anti-Quay Republicans.

"The Quay managers have abandoned all hope of securing a single vote from the anti-Quay manager have abandoned all hope of securing a single vote from the anti-Quay manager have abandoned all hope of securing a single vote from the anti-Quay manager have abandoned all hope of securing a single vote from the anti-Quay manager have abandoned all hope of securing a single vote from the anti-Quay manager have abandoned all hope of securing a single vote from the contest, they assert with an air of mystery rather than of confidence, that the proper time enough Democrats will be found to supply the necessary four ten as typhold fever and pneumonia re-

Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 22.-As the

SENSATION PROMISED ANARCHY IN SANTIAGO PLEADING FOR QUAY

PROMINENT MEN CALLED SPIRIT OF REBELLION GOV. STONE'S STATEMENT

WILL TESTIFY BEFORE THE ORDERS CONCERNING FUNDS PENNSYLVANIA STILL INDEST-ED TO HER BOSS.

Their Testimony Will Shed Light Concentration of Customs Receipts Alleges That the Criminal Charges Were the Result of a Conspiracy and There Is Nothing In the Indictments-Quay's Great Service to His Party.

quire into the charges brought against thorities in Havana, directing the auSpeaker Wright of the assembly and thorities of the Santiago military deothers prominently connected with the partment not to spend a cent of cusclection of a United States senator, the votes that Senator Quay must have to elect him. The Quay machine is bank-rupt in the matter of political patrenage. All the attempts of the Quay people to create friction between the Democratis and anti-Quaylites have signally failed. Senator Quay massed all his strengta to break the anti-Quay lines last Wednesday and failed. He has given orders that another effort must be made to break them next Tuesday, but he will again fail. Senator Quay may be side to prolong the deaflock, but revelect himself United States senator from Pennsylvania, never.

NEBRASKA SITUATION.

Webster's Ten Votes May Break the

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 21-Managers of senatorial booms in the city tonight af-

Wife's Sister.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 21.-The Star says; Miss Maud L. Fritz of Kansas City says; Miss Maud L. Fritz of Kansas City is to become the bride of James L. Flood, only aon of the late James C. Flood, the famous California bonanza king, who fell heir to one-third of his father's vast estate. Miss Fritz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fritz of this city and sister of the first Mrs. Flood, who died one year ago this month. The engagement, says the Star, will be announced by the family this week, and the wedding will take place in Kansas City about Feb. 8. It will be quietly celebrated, privately, at the home of the young woman's narents, and the millionaire and his bride will leave immediately for San Francisco to live in Mr. Flood's magnificent mansion on Nob hill. Miss Fritz returned from a three-months' visit in California last Monday, accompanied by Mr. Flood. He and his valet occupied a suite of rooms at the Midland hotel until Friday, when he left for California. He will return in about two weeks to claim his bride.

Miss Fritz is a tall and rather stout young woman, not more than 3\(\text{3}\), a striking blonde, of good figure and graceful carriage. In appearance she somewhat resembles her slater, Rese, Mr. Flood's first wife. She has spent the greater part of the past five years in California, visiting her sister at the summer and winter homes of the Flood estate, so during that time her triends here have seen little of her. Her father is a contractor. is to become the bride of James L. Flood

Prominent Young Lady of San Francisco Fatally Burned. San Francisco, Jan. 22.-Miss Jennie Moore, daughter of the late M. C. Moore Moore, daughter of the late M. C. Moore, and a prominent society belle, dled today at the family residence on dough street, from the effects of fire. While dressing for dinner the lace curtain of her room became ignited from a gas jet. She attempted to extinguish the biage, but her clothing caught fire and she rushed into the half a mass of flames, which were quenched with difficulty by the family and servants. The young lady, who was 25 years old and noted for her beauty and talents, lingered in great agony for several hours, when she expired.

IDAHO TROOPS VINDICATED.

Slanderous Story Concerning Volunteers Is Emphatically Denied.

the call by generally admitted that Bulla has a large second choice following, which the call the present coming the present co Blackfoot, Ida., Jan. 21-Martin F. Blackfoot, Ida., Jan. 22.—Martin F. scentarives, and a declaration that no Forbes, a veteran of the civil war and a animosity against America exists in soldier in the late was with Spain, has Germany, where Americans always just returned to Blackfoot, from Manila, meet with the most friendly recepture. Forbes says that the charge that the at the battle of Manila is uncualifiedly faise; that Colonel Jones was present during the fight, and that the blaho troops did their duty. It has been hinted throughout the state and has created considerable of a sensation, but Mr. Forbes states emphatically that neither Colonel Jones not any of his soldiers showed the white feather at Manila.

Pioneer Stage Man Dead.

Atchison, Kan., Jan. 22 - James W. Parker died here today of heart trouble, aged 71 years. He was a pioneer stage operator and mail contractor. In 1856 he operated some of the largest mall routes in the country, particularly in the west, being one of the own-troops appear to fear the robels, and stage operator and mail contractor. In 1866 he operated some of the largest mail routes in the country, particu-larly in the west, being one of the owners of the old California & Oregon Stage company, operating between San Francisco and Portland.

Domestic Tragedy at Chicago. Chicago, Jan. 22.-John Diethloff shot his wife today, after a quarrel. He then shot himself twice. Both died later at the hospital. They had not been living together for some time. Joint stock company has been formed Her refusal to supply him with funds at Cologne, with a capital of £500,000, is supposed to have caused the crime.

THE HERALD BULLETIN.

PAGE ONE. Massacre In Philippines. Protest Against Imperialism. California Senatorial Fight. Pleading For Quay. Anarchy In Santiago. PAGE TWO.

Puerto Rico Tariff. PAGE THREE. In Railway Circles. PAGE FOUR.

At the Tabernacle.

tection.

"Their should be no occasion for concern among the friends of Senator Quay on account of the present deadlock on the senatorship. Public sentiment in his favor is making itself felt among the members of the legislature. If Senator Quay's supporters stand firm, as I am convinced they will, his re-election will certainly follow in due time.

"WILLIAM A STONE."

Editorial. PAGE FIVE. Wearisome Task of Idaho's Legislature. Mines of Southeastern Utah.

Great Copper Find. PAGE SEVEN. Peace Treaty Fight. PAGE EIGHT. Combination Charged of Candidates

Against McCune. Legislature's Second Week. Dr. Paden On Polygamy.

PAGE SIX.

Spanish Governor and Sev-

Deadlock.

senatorial booms in the city tonight affect to believe that they see the end of the struggle approaching. The ten Republican votes from Douglas county (Omaha) form the theme for most interesting gossip, it being stated that they will lead the break whenever it comes. The ten votes have been cast steadily for John T. Webster, but the other candidates believe he will be satisfied, if, by throwing the votes he controls to some other candidate, he can name the next senator and thereby improve his chances to succeed Senator

Millionaire Woes and Wins His Late

Funds Solicited For a Statue at

LONGFELLOW MEMORIAL.

Funds Solicited For a Statue at Washington.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The executive committee of the Longfellow National Managed and the Inhabitants are now damaged and the inhabitants are now washington, Jan. 22.—The executive committee of the Longfellow National Memorial association, formed for the purpose of erecting a statue of the poet in Washington, has issued an appeal to the public for subscriptions to accomplish this purpose. The committee estimates that $35,000 will be needed to procure a site and a statue worthy of the poet. The smallest contributions will be welcomed.

The Riggs National bank of Washington has consented to act as financial agent of the memorial association, and checks may be made payable to it. Rev. Alexander Mackay-Smith, chairman, fand General Adolphus W. Greety, secretary, on behalf of the executive committee, sign the appeal.

The president is an honorary regent of the association. Chief Justice Fuller is president, while Secretary Hay. Senators Hoar and Wolcott, Speaker Reed and many other prominent men are associated with the movement.

SOCIETY BELLE'S DEATH.

nish tents and supplies.

PROTEST FROM GERMANS. Deprecate Hostile Expressions In United States Congress.

Munich, Jan. 22.-The Neuste Nachrichten, which raised a storm of indignation among the ultra-patriotic papers by hinting that German doings papers by hinting that terman oblig-in the Philippines were largely respon-sible for the delicate relations between the United States and Germany, and that, as the German foreign office knew nothing of them, it would be ad-visable to institute an investigation with a view of avoiding the recurrence of such mistakes makes the following of such mistakes, makes the following of such mistakes, makes the following announcement today:

"The Americans here have decided to send to the Washington government a protest against the anti-derman ex-pressions used in the house of repre-

BELGIANS DEFEATED.

Success of the Rebels In the Congo State.

Brussels, Jan. 22.—There has been fresh fighting in the Congo state between the Belgian troops and the reb-els, the former having sustained heavy losses, including some white officers killed.

Patriote says: "The real truth the prestige of the whites has been much impaired."

NEW ATLANTIC CABLE.

Will Run Direct From Garmany to United States.

London, Jan. 23.-The Berlin correto lay a cable direct from Germany to the United States. At the same time Wolf's telegraph agency decided to es-tablish a branch office in New York City. Evidently the "yellow press" campaign against Germany, which has caused great embitterment on both sides, has induced the German government to favor this project, by which it is hoped to exercise a direct influ-ence upon public opinion in the United States."

GERMANY WANTS NO QUARREL.

Will Not Interpose Obstacles to a

London, Jan. 21.-The Berlin correspondent of the Times says: There are cood reasons for believing that the German government regards the maintenance of cordial relations with Great Britain and the Enited States as far mere important than even German commercial interests in Samoa. The tone of the leading journals, therefore, is, on the whole, free from bittenness or exaggeration. In a word, there are many indications that Germany will not frustrate a revision of the treaty of Berlin by extravagant demands, such as, for instance, the cession of the islands to Germany.

The Kolmische Zeitung ridicules the report that Dr. Von Holleben, German ambassador at Washinston, has compiained of Berry's remarks in the house of representatives, and says that the United ent of the Times says: There are good Settlement In Samoa.